VERY LIVELY EPISODE

In the County Board's Regular Meeting Yesterday

OVER MR. ROBINSON'S RESOLUTION

To Tax Building Associations—It Falls for Want of a Second, and he then Springs Another Matter—Members Restrained with Difficulty from Talking Very Plainly.

When the regular monthly meeting of the board of county commissioners opened yesterday Clerk Moffat read the minutes in the usual formal way. When he had finished Commissioner Robinson, of Madison district, moved an amendment. He said that at the last meeting he had introduced a resolution calling attention to the fact that building associations were not taxed in Ohio county, and that they ought to be. He moved its reference to the prosecuting attorney, yet this motion was not entered on the minutes. He desired to have the record corrected accordingly.

President Dobbins said that the motion made at the last meeting was not seconded nor put before the board, and was therefore not properly a matter for the record to show.

Mr. Robinson insisted with some warmth that it should be entered on the minutes, but Mr. Dobbins responded: "The minutes will be approved as read unless otherwise ordered." There was no further remark, and Mr. Dobbins signed the minutes and announced that fact, whereupon the board proceeded to routine business.

There was not much business demanding attention, and when it was transacted the chairman said that the table was clear and a motion to adjourn was in order.

Mr. Robinson arose and said he had something he desired to offer. He then presented a motion in writing, as follows:

"In view of the fact that the assessors of Ohio county, from a misconception of the law, have failed to assess the building and loan associations that are located in the said county, I make the following motion—that the assessors of Ohio county are hereby ordered to proceed and make the assessments on said associations in accordance with the law on page 190 of the Code of West Virginia of 1891, and deliver said assessment to the sheriff of Ohio county for collection, according to law."

The chairman asked if there was a second to the motion, and none being offered, he said that under rule 6 of the board the matter could not be entertained.

Mr. Robinson said that he did not ask for a second and did not want the motion entertained. He made several remarks which seemed to reflect on other members, and one or two of them took the floor at once to speak on the subject. Mr. Fritz and Mr. Glass seemed particularly eager to secure the floor, but President Dobbins ruled that there was nothing before the board, and called them down with his gavel.

Mr. Robinson said he had another matter to call to the attention of the board. He then read another motion, calling on Clerk T. C. Moffat to report how many gallons of whisky he had purchased for the members of the board, how much it cost per gallon, and out of what fund it was paid for.

This again brought several members to their feet, three and four at a time striving to secure recognition by the chair, but Mr. Dobbins plied his gavel vigorously, and declared all debate out of order. When order was restored, he said: "I will not ask for a second to that motion."

Mr. Robinson said he did not want a second, and continued with some remarks about the members not coming out and expressing themselves, but the president said there was nothing before the board and a motion to adjourn was in order. This motion was made and carried.

President Dobbins after the meeting said to an INTELLIGENCER reporter that whisky was bought for use at the poor house, in half barrel lots, just as other stores and drugs were purchased, and was issued on the physician's prescription. There were some old inmates who were given a few ounces of liquor daily. The barrel was kept in the dispensary, where all the drugs were kept, was in charge of Superintendent McCoy, and had a key spigot which nobody could turn but he.

The motions of Mr. Robinson were ascribed by members to feeling on account of his not securing the committee places he desired when the present board was organized. Some of the members were very wrathful, and only Mr. Dobbins's firmness and liberal use of his gavel prevented a much more lively scene.

There was very little routine business done. Bills were recommended for payment by the different committees as follows:

Court house and jail	$182 98
Finance committee	512 91
Poor house and farm	666 91
Contingent poor fund	294 45
Roads and bridges	455 13

These were ordered paid. The sheriff returned county orders for $15,217 05 and was credited with that amount.

The infirm superintendent reported cash receipts from farm products, etc., of $80 30. There were in the institution in August 70 white males, 17 white females and 2 colored females, a total of 89. There were two deaths in the month.

Transfers Recorded.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record transfers of real estate as follows:

August 27 by Samuel J. Boyd and wife to William A. Wilson, for $10,000, part of lot 7 in square 3, on the west side of Main street, south of Fourteenth, now occupied by Boyd & Co. as a wholesale shoe house.

July 13 by Jesse H. Shaffer and wife to William H. Shaffer, for $500, lot 57 in the Zane's orchard addition.

August 1 by W. H. Caldwell, trustee, to the West Virginia savings and building association, of Wheeling, for $310, the south half of lot 40 in Joseph Caldwell's addition, on Market street, south of Twenty-seventh.

The Weather Last Month.

Mr. G. Schnepf, the government weather observer, furnishes an interesting report for August, showing that there were 18 days partly cloudy, 5 clear, 2 cloudy without rain and 6 on which it rained. The highest temperature was 90.4 on the 11th and the lowest 49 on the 22d. The thermometer's average was 74.8, while in the same month last year it was 72.9. The rainfall was something unusual, there being nine thunder storms in the month and the total rainfall being 3.06 inches, as against 1.46 in August, 1894.

THE COURTS IN SESSION.

All Three Opened their September Terms Yesterday—The Grand Jury not Done.

Yesterday the criminal court opened its regular September term, Judge T. J. Hugus on the bench. A grand jury was impaneled, composed of C. J. Rawling, foreman; J. C. Parrish, G. W. Hand, C. E. Gee, Henry Baer, Robert Neabitt, George Crumbaker, John McKee, William Goehring, W. A. Isett, Louis Bonenberger, F. A. Woerber, W. F. Myers, Louis Armbricht and H. F. Jones.

The usual statutory charge was given and the jurors retired to their room. They were in session until about half past five o'clock, and examined many witnesses, and not being done then, they were adjourned till 9:30 this morning. It is possible the docket will be called in this court this afternoon.

Both parts of the circuit court also met yesterday, Judges Paul and Campbell presiding. It was ordered that the docket be called in Part I at 9:30 a. m. on Wednesday and at 2 p. m. on the same day in Part II.

THE JUSTICES' COURTS.

Several Interesting Minor Cases Disposed of Yesterday.

In Squire Fitzpatrick's court yesterday a boy named Hughie Clancy was arraigned as a person not of good fame. It was alleged that he associated with boys who robbed Baltimore & Ohio cars and were of bad character generally, and that he had been guilty of crimes. There was not enough evidence to substantiate the charge, however, and he was discharged.

The same justice had before him Charles Luke, charged by J. L. Henderson with obtaining a watch and $15 by false pretenses. In this case, also, the accusation proved to be out of keeping with the evidence, and the boy was discharged.

In Squire Gillespy's court Clara Moss was again arraigned on the charge of keeping a house of ill fame at 57 Seventeenth street, and on four charges of selling beer without a license. She was held in $200 for court on the first charge, and waived examination on the beer charges, on which she was held in $100 bail in each case.

Julia Chisnell was held in $200 for renting the house for immoral purposes, May Wilson and Edith Maywood in $100 each as inmates, and four men in the same amount for loitering and also as witnesses. All gave bond.

THAT ELM GROVE TRACK.

The Street Committee and Board View It Again.

At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon the council committee on streets, alleys and grades and the board of public works went out to McCulloch street to look into the proposed change of the Wheeling & Elm Grove railway track to the opposite side of the street from that it now occupies. It was objected that to cross the street as proposed would require a reverse curve, and the outer rail of each curve being elevated, would make an offset on the lower side at one place and on the upper side at another, with only a short space between with anything like a good passage way for teams. The members of the committee seemed disposed to insist on the change, however. The only question was whether the committee could order it made, or whether it would not have to be submitted to council for action. This question was referred to the city solicitor for his opinion.

The board of public works proposed to narrow the sidewalk on the side the track now occupies to nine feet, which it is claimed would obviate all danger and inconvenience to the residents along the track there.

Police Work in August.

Chief of Police Bennett has completed his monthly report for August, from which the following figures are taken: Number of arrests, 112; white males, 84; colored males, 6; white females, 20; colored females, 2. Males committed to city prison, 29; females committed to county jail, 3. Total amount of fines and costs assessed, $849 50; amount collected, $376 80. There were 44 prisoners who paid, 26 cases in which the penalties were suspended, nine were dismissed and one appealed his case.

Auction Sale of Island lots on Elm street was postponed until Saturday next at 10 a. m., at the Court House.

Oysters—Oysters.

The great Ellis Star Brand to-day at 30c per quart. W. O. McCLESKY, Depot, 56 Twelfth street.

Is a recent letter to the manufacturers Mr. W. F. Benjamin, editor of the Spectator, Rushford, N. Y., says: "It may be a pleasure to you to know the high esteem in which Chamberlain's medicines are held by the people of your own state, where they must be best known. An aunt of mine, who resides at Dexter, Iowa, was about to visit me a few years since, and before leaving home wrote me, asking if they were sold here, stating if they were not she would bring a quantity with her, as she did not like to be without them." The medicines referred to are Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of colds and croup; Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, lame back, pains in the side and chest, and Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. These medicines have been in constant use in Iowa for almost a quarter of a century. The people have learned that they are articles of great worth and merit, and unequaled by any other.

STOMACH and Bowel Complaints are best relieved by the timely use of Dr. Williams' Colic and Cholera Cure. Insist on having this preparation. Don't take any other. Logan Drug Co., Wheeling, W. Va., B. F. Peabody, Benwood, and Bowie & Co., Bridgeport, O.
